Liverpool Girls’ High School
A learning community that sets high standards

Our Guiding Principles

At Liverpool Girls’ High School we are;
✓ respectful,
✓ responsible,
✓ caring learners

who strive for excellence.

The Aims of Liverpool Girls’ High School

▪ To encourage the school community to cultivate, consolidate and extend academic, social, physical and personal development of each individual.

▪ To provide the school community with the skills for life-long learning and encourage active involvement within the school and wider community.

▪ To provide staff with opportunities to maintain and develop professionally and encourage high expectations providing quality teaching and learning.

▪ To foster partnerships with parents and the wider community.

▪ To foster, embrace and nurture cultural awareness and tolerance in the school and wider community.
We believe ...

- in providing quality teaching and learning programs that tailor the curriculum to meet individual abilities, needs and learning styles;
- in giving opportunities for involvement, participation, collaboration and co-operation in order to facilitate excellence;
- that all students and staff have the right to further their educational experience through extra-curricular and professional activities; and
- every student and staff member has the right to be provided with leadership opportunities and mentoring roles.

We value ...

- honesty, respect and integrity;
- life-long learning;
- respect, understanding, and tolerance of each other’s culture, ethnicity, age, gender, sexuality, religion, beliefs and ability;
- a sense of belonging by being an integral part of the school and wider community;
- creating and maintaining a safe and purposeful learning environment; and
- personal achievement, encouraging everyone to achieve their personal best.

We expect the school community to ...

- actively embrace the learning opportunities provided through the school curriculum, extra-curricular and professional learning activities;
- demonstrate commitment to learning and achieve personal best, striving to become critical thinkers and independent learners;
- take pride in and maintain the safety of the learning environment;
- demonstrate active citizenship within the school, local and wider community;
- take responsibility for individual learning behaviours, actions and resulting consequences; and
- respect and accept diversity and differences.

We are committed to ...

- providing excellence in Girls’ Education with a focus on individual needs;
- providing staff with the opportunity to demonstrate and enhance their expertise as models of lifelong learning;
- an environment for the school community that is safe, fair and focused;
- encouraging and rewarding personal achievements, and
- being an active and responsive learning community.
